

- 1. Once upon a time I had my BCA second year exam and my train was late only one hour was left to reach the exam I had to go 70 kms to go for the exam then I rode the bike on my rickshaw And gave the exam on that time because o time was very important for me because the time that goes never comes back I have never compromised in my career.
- 2. Power, because if power is not there then money is of no use and when power is there then we can earn any amount of money.
- 3. I am calculative supported Indian language my primary objective is to answer any questions I can calculate the possible results.
- 4. Here I am choosing speed because any work in the world, when it is in motion, it always keeps on changing and the destination of the thing which is in motion is visible, so I am choosing speed.
- 5. By the way both are important but if we talk about the difference then more institute is important because if the institute is not there then we will not get education then we give first priority to the institute.
- 6. Identity because if my identity is with people then we can survive anywhere and can do any work easily.
- 7. I get angry when someone proves himself right by lying and getting angry is not a fixed number, I get angry when someone decides wrong things.
- 8. Although one should not lose patience, but according to the question, I tell that when I have completed a work hundred percent and do not get the complete result, then I have to lose patience.
- 9. I am scared every day so to speak current time.
- 10. According to me there is no time for self doubt when I don't complete my work in right time then we start having self doubt
- 11. See, it is not possible to guess what someone is thinking about me.
- 12. good thinking good work and earn money.

13. hearing

14.See, if we are in a bad mood, then we should correct it by ourselves, because it is very important to be self-dependent.

15.Look, if someone is not judging me, then I will think what is the reason, if I know the reason, then I will be able to answer him accordingly.

16.See, there was a time when my laptop was needed by someone else and on that day I also needed it, so I first decided to manage my time and gave it to him for some time and his work also got done and mine also got reduced.

17.don't face this type of situation